

The Mumbai police and Doctors fighting spirit against the coronavirus and the fight of the personnel in managing the city under lockdown is deeply respected and to show our gratitude and their selflessness our foundation family lent a helping hand to support safety for those keeping us safe.

Our founder Mr Navin Shetty with members of our foundation provided sanitiser, masks and gloves as basic safety safeguards to express gratitude and our wholehearted indebtedness to such heroes in real life.